Introduction

The size of the page must adhere to the A4 (210x297mm) standard. Microsoft Word users can set this format by opening the File menu and choosing Page Layout and then Paper Size. Metric units should be converted into centimetres. To do this, open the Tools menu, choose Options and go to General.

Pages are NOT to have page numbers. All four margins are to be set at 1.5cm width. This option can be found in File -> Page Layout -> Margins.

The text is to be written in two columns set at 8.5cm width with a 1cm space between them. The column width may be excepted from this rule if there are equations, graphs and images, which exceed the required width included.

Methodology

a. Paragraph Format

Paragraph (style [Normal] in MS Word) is to be in Justified alignment (aligned with both margins). Font size is to be 10pt and the spacing between paragraphs is to be 4pt. Please refer to the Style menu in Home. The format of all the paragraph have been set then you can applied to your abstract.

b. Title and Headings

Both levels of parts of research (title, headings etc, [Heading 1-2]) are to be aligned with the left margin. Spacing can be found in the table 1

c. Tables

Tables are to be in the centre of the column (or the page, if the size of the table necessitates it). Tables are also to be accompanied by numbers and explanations. Tables are to be separated from the rest of the text with 12pt spacing.
